

Cynthiana

This dry red wine is a beautiful deep burgundy color. The rich bouquet is that of raspberry, black cherry, and cassis. The full body is very fruit-forward and is similar in style to a Cabernet or Sirah. The finish is lingering with hints of spice, vanilla and raspberries.

Cynthiana is excellent with steak, duck, meaty stews, pasta and rich cheeses.

Appellation: Missouri

Varietal: Cynthiana (Norton)

Fermented in Stainless Steel and aged in American Oak

Alcohol: 13%

Residual Sugar: 0.4% (4 gm/liter)

Cellar Life: 8-15 Years

